Scope of the Disclosure

A2B PRIME MARKETS LTD provides you with this ‘Risk Disclosure Notice’ (the “Notice”) to help you understand the risks that might arise when trading contracts-for-difference (“CFDs”). This Notice is non-exhaustive, and you need to bear in mind that it doesn’t contain all the risks and aspects involved in trading CFDs or how the risks relate to your personal circumstances. You should carefully read this Notice in conjunction with our Terms and Conditions and other documents and information available to you through our website, in light of your personal circumstances, before deciding to open an account and trade with us. We recommend that you seek independent advice if you’re unsure.

Risk Disclosures

“Trading in Contracts for Difference (CFDs) is highly speculative and involves a substantial risk of loss. CFD trading may not be suitable for all investors. Before trading, assess your financial condition and your level of experience and only invest with money you can afford to lose. Past performance or the use of financial indicators are not reliable sources of information and cannot be indicative of future results. You should consider whether you understand how spread bets and CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money.

Some investments products including OTC products can involve a high level of risk to your capital. On this basis, it is highly advised that you should only trade with money you can afford to lose. It is your responsibility to seek independent advice before trading on some investments products as it is not suitable for all investors. It is also highly advisable that you read the policies available here to fully understand the risks that are associated with trading some investments products considering your financial objectives and trading experience.”
